

TALKING ABOUT HISTORY

FROM “HIGHNESS” TO MAJESTY: The Granddaughters of Queen Victoria Who Married Reigning Monarchs

From the moment they were born, all five granddaughters of Queen Victoria were members of an exclusive club. But how would life bring them the opportunity to join an even more exclusive club as wives of reigning sovereigns? Finally, would this exclusivity bring them any happiness?

Please join us for a four-part presentation as we explore the lives of five granddaughters of Queen Victoria who rose from “Highness” to “Majesty.”

Monday, September 20 - Maud, Queen of Norway: The Unintended Queen

Monday, October 4 - Sophie, Queen of Greece and Marie, Queen of Rumania: Tragic Queen and PR Savvy Queen

Monday, October 18 - Alexandra, Empress of Russia: The Foreign Empress

Monday, November 1 - Victoria Eugenie, Queen of Spain: The Beautiful Queen

Dr. Mona Garcia

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Fairfield Woods Branch Library
1147 Fairfield Woods Road

Please call Fairfield Woods Branch Library at (203) 255-7308 to register.

Or, if you prefer, you can now register online at www.fairfieldpubliclibrary.org. Click on the “Calendar of Events” link. This program is free and open to the public.

Presenter: Dr. Mona Garcia

Our presenter, Dr. Mona Garcia, taught European history at the college level and is on staff as a Reference Librarian in the Fairfield Public Library system. She has presented papers at academic conferences in the United States and Great Britain, and has publications in her field of English history, one of which has been included in the Bibliography of British and Irish History (formerly the Royal Historical Society Bibliography).

Winner of the 2010
Connecticut Award for Excellence in Public Library Service

Fairfield
PUBLIC LIBRARY

