

Author Talks: Their Works and Their Writing Lives

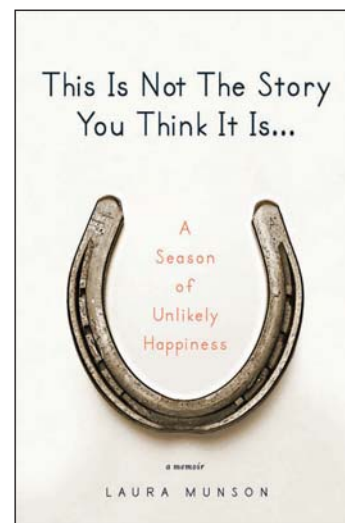

Best-selling Memoir Writer

Laura Munson

This Is Not The Story You Think It Is: A Season of Unlikely Happiness

“Laura Munson takes the spiritual stuff and the personal stuff and the love stuff and the pain stuff and she brews them all together in a very fun and touching memoir. I’m a fan. This is a wonderful book.”

-Marianne Williamson, author of The Age of Miracles, and a Return to Love

Several years ago, Munson’s marriage was in crisis, when her husband told her he didn’t love her any more. The reader becomes her confidante as she journeys through the ups and downs of this devastating period of her life. Laura came to the realization that she had to stop basing her happiness on things outside of her control and to become responsible for her own well-being, especially during a crisis.

Laura Munson

Thursday, Sept. 16, 2010

12 noon

Rotary Room

Fairfield Public Library

1080 Old Post Road, Fairfield

Book Discussion and Luncheon

To register, please go online to www.fairfieldpubliclibrary.org or call 203-256-3160.

All programs at the Fairfield Public Library are offered to the public free of charge. The luncheon is provided by the Friends of the Fairfield Public Library.

Laura Munson and her family live on twenty acres in Montana, where she writes novels, memoirs, short stories and essays. This is her first published book, which was fashioned from her essay in the New York Times Modern Love column, “Those Aren’t Fighting Words, Dear.”

Winner of the 2010
Connecticut Award for Excellence in Public Library Service

Fairfield
PUBLIC LIBRARY

