“Kennedy is astonishing at communicating his characters’ emotional turmoil . . . and he tosses tough ethical questions our way as he ponders the ‘moment’ that could change everything—and the very nature of love.”

Main Library, Rotary Room

Douglas Kennedy is presenting two of his books, Temptation and The Moment. The “master storyteller” of Temptation is speaking about his newest book release. The screenwriter’s sudden overnight success, in Temptation, completely alters his life. His new fame causes David Armitage to reinvent himself by leaving his wife and living a new glamorous life. The Moment takes the reader from modern day Maine back to a Berlin torn apart by the Cold War. When a mysterious box arrives for Thomas Nesbitt postmarked Berlin, he is reminded of his time with East German refugee, Petra Dussmann and when personal and political loyalties were questioned.

The Friends of the Fairfield Public Library will provide a light luncheon following his lecture.
